

We receive excellent feedback from our regular delegates and strive to ensure that they have a successful and enjoyable experience.

Some of their recent comments include:-

“Good links made, hoping to come back across during the year to work with a few schools.”

“Students had an exemplary attitude, were polite and engaged with a real interest in their subjects.”

“I spoke to several students already booked onto our Open Day.”

“Thank you for your hospitality. The students were really well prepared and a pleasure to talk to.”

“Perfect. No way could the catering arrangements be bettered. Choice, quality and wine were five star.”

“Great for helping to get our name out there.”

“Everything arrived in good time to enable forward planning for transport and hotels. Excellent.”

“Amazing students, polite, enthusiastic about their futures, good questions, many looking at back up plans as well.”

“Had a lot more traffic than I was expecting. Great.”

“Obviously being ‘down south’ we may not be as popular as those institutions who are closer, even so I had enough interest from students to make it a very worthwhile visit.”

“Absolutely excellent food, felt extremely well catered for. Thank you!”

“Very impressed. Given there are many exhibitors here, there is exceptional space. No over-crowdedness. Well done.”
